SOMMELIER PROGRAM IN ARGENTINA: WHAT IS A SOMMELIER?

A sommelier, or wine steward, is a trained and knowledgeable wine professional who is also familiar with infusions, liqueurs and distilled liquors.

Sommeliers were once limited to serving wine in only the best restaurants; however, today a sommelier can have many more responsibilities including selecting the wines and beverage services at a restaurant, holding wine tastings and giving presentations, as well as being a wine critic, writer, educator or consultant.

The Mente Argentina Intensive Sommelier Program provides you with all of the tools and education that you will need to become a successful professional in the wine industry, both domestically and internationally. You will be prepared for a management position or to start your own business in one of the profitable industries in the world.

MENTE ARGENTINA INTENSIVE SOMMELIER PROGRAM IN ARGENTINA

The Mente Argentina Intensive Sommelier Program has been designed for wine lovers from around the globe who want to perfect their knowledge and understanding of the world of wine, but who also seek an extraordinary learning experience in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Mente's Sommelier program offers students the highest quality education, and because of the intensive nature the program can be completed in just five months. It will encompass all of the material that a 12 month program covers in a short and thorough five months.

The wine industry is growing at an astonishing rate around the world creating higher quality wine and wine production which has stimulated interested and more knowledgeable consumers. This change in wine culture is shaping the industry and attracting new clients and enthusiasts from all over the world. Because of this growth in sophisticated consumption, the industry now needs a link between the producer and consumer. The sommelier plays an important role in connecting and maintaining a relationship between the two.

In response to this growing market, Mente Argentina's Intensive Sommelier Program is for those who wish to develop the skills necessary to succeed in this expanding market. The main objective of the program is to shape individuals into highly qualified professionals with the knowledge and capabilities to become leaders in the wine industry, as well as the several additional areas of Tourism and Gastronomy.

The Sommelier Program is designed for candidates who have worked in the customer service industry and/or have restaurant management experience, as well as those without experience in the field but who wish to pursue a career in the wine industry, whether it is in a winery or at the vineyard, or as a distributor or specialty store owner.

*no prior experience is required.
